SUN 21:50 Sunday Feature (b009qnx4)

Homer's Landscapes

Homer's Landscapes: The Iliad

Adam Nicolson travels along the eastern Mediterranean, from the Ionian Sea to the western coast of Turkey to trace the origins of the poems at the root of modern European thought.

Adam travels to Homer's Troy, walking the plains and visiting the ruins of its citadel, finding that although Homer is thought to have been blind, it is possible to directly map Homer's great poem of war onto the coastline of the Aegean, the beach of the Greek camp, the Scamander River and the hewn stone walls of Troy.

SUN 22:35 Words and Music (b009py3w)

The Geography of a Home

Belinda Lang and David Bamber read poems on the theme of houses and homes. Celebrating the idea of the physical building of a home, and the lives that change within it, poetry comes from WH Auden, Philip Larkin, Robert Service and Ivor Gurney. Music by Sibelius, Chopin, Holst, Copland, Chris Rea and The Beatles.
